SECTION - A

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

'My aunt will be down presently, Mr Nuttel,' said a very self-possessed young lady of fifteen; 'in the meantime you must try and put up with me.'

Framton Nuttel endeavoured to say the correct something which should duly flatter the niece of the moment without unduly discounting the aunt that was to come. Privately he doubted more than ever whether these formal visits on a succession of total strangers would do much towards helping the nerve cure which he was supposed to be undergoing.

'I know how it will be,' his sister had said when he was preparing to migrate to this rural retreat; 'you will bury yourself down there and not speak to a living soul, and your nerves will be worse than ever from, moping. I shall just give you letters of introduction to all the people I know there. Some of them, as far as I can remember, were quite nice.'

Framton wondered whether Mrs. Sappleton, the lady to whom he was presenting one of the letters of introduction, came into the nice division.

'Do you know many of the people round here ?' asked the niece, when she judged that they had sufficient silent communion.

'Hardly a soul,' said Framton. 'My sister was staying here, at the rectory, you know, some four years ago, and she gave me letters of introduction to some of the people here.'

He made the last statement in a tone of distinct regret.

'Then you know practically nothing about my aunt ?' pursued the self-possessed young lady.

2. Read the stanza given below and answer the questions that follow :

The Laburnum top is silent, quite still

In the afternoon yellow September sunlight,

A few leaves yellowing, all its seeds fallen.

Till the goldfinch comes, with a twitching chirrup

A suddenness, a startlement, at a branch end.

Then sleek as a lizard, and alert, and abrupt,

She enters the thickness, and a machine starts up

Of chitterings, and a tremor of wings, and trillings—

The whole tree trembles and thrills.

It is the engine of her family.

Questions :

1 × 6 = 6

- (i) How is the top of laburnum ?
- (ii) Which time of the year is mentioned here ?
- (iii) How are the leaves of this tree ?
- (iv) Where does the goldfinch sit as it comes ?

SECTION – B

4. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

She stood among the swaying crowd in the station at the North Wall. He held her hand and she knew that he was speaking to her, saying something about the passage over and over again. The station was full of soldiers with brown baggages. Through the wide doors of the sheds she caught a glimpse of the black mass of the boat, lying in beside the quay wall, with illumined portholes. She answered nothing. She felt her cheek pale and cold and, out of a maze of distress, she prayed to God to direct her, to show her what was her duty. The boat blew a long mournful whistle into the mist. If she went, tomorrow she would be on the sea with Frank, steaming toward Buenos Aires. Their passage had been booked. Could she still draw back after all he had done for her ? Her distress awoke a nausea in her body and she kept moving her lips in silent fervent prayer.

Questions :

1 × 4 = 4

- (i) Name the story and its writer.
- (ii) Where was 'she' standing among the swaying crowd ?
- (iii) What was the station full of ?
- (iv) What did she pray to God for ?

- (ii) Whose happy-making sight is the poet talking of ?
- (iii) What will happen when our heavenly guided soul climes ?
- (iv) On what will we have, our triumph ?

6. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

But after life. The slow pulling down of thick green stalks so that the cup of the flower, as it turns over, deluges one with purple and red light. Why, after all, should one not be born there as one is born here, helpless, speechless, unable to focus one's eyesight, groping at the roots of the grass, at the toes of the Giants ? As for saying which are trees and which are men and women, or whether there are such things, that one won't be in a condition to do for fifty years or so. There will be nothing but spaces of light and dark, intersected by thick stalks, and rather higher up perhaps, rose-shaped blots of an indistinct colour – dim pinks and blues –which will, as time goes on, become more definite, become – I don't know what...

Questions : $1 \times 4 = 4$

- (i) Name the chapter and its author.
- (ii) What one should not be born there as one has born here ?
- (iii) What will be there beyond nothing ?
